ON the 16th the King was pleaſed to declare five new Majors, who are to take Place as Vacancies ſhall happen: Theſe five Majors are, Meſſ. de Bulow, de Houdenbourg, de Hauſs, de Ledebourg, and the Count de Platen; the firſt is a Captain in the Regiment of Maeder; the ſecond a Captain in the Regiment of Campen; the third a Captain in the Regiment of Klinckenſtrom; and the two laſt, Captains in the Foot Guards.

Hague, Sept. 23, N. S. Letters from Italy of the 10th Inſtant adviſe, that the Duke de Montemar had been a few Days at Leghorn to haſten the ſending forward from thence the Artillery and Stores of Ammunition brought thither from Sicily, and deſigned to be employed in the Siege of Mantua; and that on the 6th he paſſed through Bologna in his Way to Lombardy, to quicken the Preparations which are making there likewiſe of Stores neceſſary to be uſed in the ſame Service, a final Reſolution having been taken to begin that Siege with all proper Expedition. In the mean Time conſiderable Bodies of the Troops of the Allies, to the Number in all of 50000 Men, were on the March towards the Frontiers of Tyrol, in order to ſecure all the Paſſes, and hinder the Imperialiſts from returning into Italy. The Advices from the Upper Rhine of the 17th Inſtant, are, that the French Army had made ſome Motions for encamping themſelves the more commodiouſly: But that the Imperial Troops continued ſtill in their former Poſts. The States of Holland have been aſſembled ſome Days, and have filled up all the Vacant Civil and Military Employments that were in the Diſpoſal of their Province; ſo that they may probably ſeparate To-morrow, unleſs the Reſult of the Conferences which have been newly held by the States Deputies with the Foreign Miniſters concerned in the Affair of Peace, ſhould induce them to prolong their Seſſion a Week longer. This Day came Advice, that an Expreſs from Prince Eugene arrived Yeſterday at Bruſſels, with Orders from the Emperour for providing Quarters, on the Frontiers of the Auſtrian Netherlands, for 40000 Men of the Army on the Rhine, who are to march thither. The Duke of Modena, who is now at Amſterdam, is ſhortly expected here, and it is ſaid deſigns to go over to England.
